

Jack Hanna

Level E

by Teresa Clevidence

Illustrated by Allison Shumaker

Bind This End

Jack Hanna was born in Tennessee. Jack grew up on a farm. He loved playing with the animals on the farm.

When Jack was young, he worked with a veterinarian. Jack helped clean the animal cages. The job was dirty and stinky, but Jack loved the animals.

Later, Jack went to college. He learned more about animals. He learned about how they eat, move and sleep. Jack used what he learned to find a job.

Jack found a job at a zoo. He helped take care of animals. He also taught other people about the animals at the zoo.

Jack knew that everyone
could not go to the zoo.
He wanted to teach those people about animals
too. Jack had an idea !

Jack took zoo animals on a television show. He talked about the animals on the show. People loved watching Jack talk about animals.

Jack became very famous.
He started his own television show about animals. People loved learning about the animals on his show.

Jack Hanna continues to travel the world to learn more about animals. He will never stop sharing his love for animals.

The End

yes

Jack Hanna

no

grow up 	work 	love 	Jack Hanna 	farm 	animal
help 	clean 	young 	veterinarian 	cage 	job
learn 	eat 	dirty 	college 	zoo 	people
move 	sleep 	stinky 	idea 	television 	show
take care 	teach 	famous 			