

Jackie Robinson

Level E

by Kathy Staugler

Illustrated by Travis Schaeffer

Jackie Robinson was an African-American hero. He was also a baseball star.

Jackie lived in California. He was a high school sports star.

Jackie went to college.
He played many sports.
But Jackie loved baseball.

KANSAS CITY
MONARCHS

Jackie played baseball in Kansas. He was a good baseball player.

Could Jackie play for the Brooklyn Dodgers ? He could be a baseball star.

Some people did not want Jackie to play for the Brooklyn Dodgers. They did not want an African-American to play on this team.

Could America change ?
Could Jackie play for the Brooklyn Dodgers ? Yes, Jackie could play.

Some fans were angry. They did not want Jackie to play. Jackie could play baseball for the Brooklyn Dodgers. Jackie was a baseball star.

Jackie Robinson is in the Baseball Hall of Fame. Jackie will always be known as a hero and a star.

The End

yes

Jackie Robinson

no

play

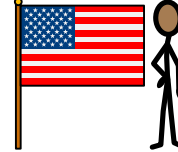

love

Jackie Robinson

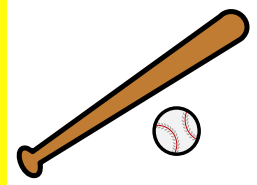

African-American

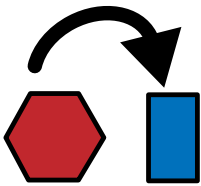

hero

baseball

change

good

star

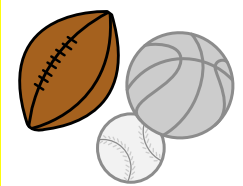

California

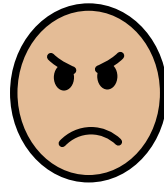

high school

sport

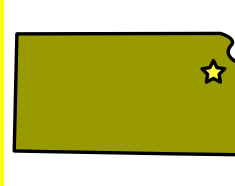

angry

college

Kansas

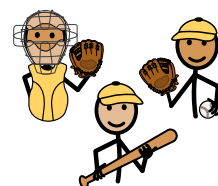

player

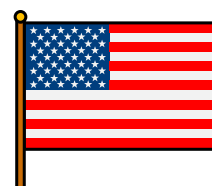

Brooklyn Dodgers

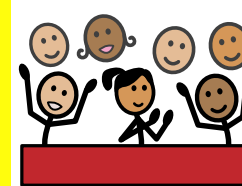

team

America

fans

Baseball Hall of Fame

